

- iv) You will be on probation for a period of 2 years, subject to the following conditions:-
- (a) During the period of probation, your work will be assessed departmentally from time to time and if your work and conduct is found unsatisfactory or shows that you are unlikely to become an efficient Officer, the Government may without assigning any reason, discharge you on the expiry of one calendar month's notice in writing.
 - (b) During the probation period, you will undergo the prescribed course of training.
 - (c) While undergoing training mentioned in sub-para (b) above, you will be required to pass such theoretical and practical tests as may be prescribed from time to time. Failing to pass these tests you shall be liable to be discharged from the Services provided that the Government may, if it so thinks fit extend the period of probation by another year and permit you to sit for a re-examination in any tests in which you have failed. No candidate shall be kept on probation for more than three years except after consulting the Commission.
 - (d) You will also be required to pass a test in Hindi before you are considered for confirmation in the post.
- (v) You should submit declaration regarding plural marriages in the prescribed form (if not already done) and in the event of your having more than one wife living, the appointment will be subject to your being exempted from the enforcement of the requirements in this regard.
- (vi) You should take an oath of allegiance/faithfulness to the Constitution of India (by making of a solemn affirmation to that effect) in the prescribed form, if not already done.
- (vii) The post is pensionable as introduced by Govt. of India under New Defined Contribution Pension Scheme replacing the existing system coming into effect from 01-01-2004 and is mandatory to all new entrants to Central Govt. Service joining on or after 01-01-2004. A Contribution of 10% of (Basic Pay + D.A) will be deducted from Salary Bill.
- (viii) You will be required to execute a surety bond in the prescribed form to the effect that you will serve in any country when required to do so with a mobilized Survey Unit and that you will neither resign or leave the Service during the period of probation nor for five years from the date of being permanently appointed and thereafter never during the field season. You will be liable for certain penalties in default of these conditions, the amount prescribed for which is as under and may vary :-